ARBUCKLES

GIVE THE PEOPLE
WHAT THEY WANT
AT THE RIGHT PRICE.

Millions of homes in every section use only Arbuckles Coffee.

It is a grocery wrong to deny the public the right coffee at the right price. Tell your grocer plainly that you must have Arbuckles ARIOSA Coffee, and if he offers you a substitute, or tries to sell you his loose scoop coffee, send directly to us. We will tell you right here, in unmistakable terms, that we buy and sell more coffee than any four other concerns in the world combined, that we drink ARIOSA Coffee ourselves, with the best coffee in the world to choose from, and that ARIOSA Coffee is the greatest coffee value in the world for the money.

Isn't that straight talk? Another thing—

We are the same old firm, not a corporation or stock company, but the same old firm that introduced ARIOSA Coffee thirty-seven years ago, and the sales of ARIOSA have grown to exceed those of all the other packaged coffees in the United States combined, just because it is better coffee for the money than anybody else can sell. The flavor and wholesomeness cannot be matched in any other coffee, nor be bought under another name, or loose out of a bag, bin or tin!

Do not let yourself be deceived by any imitation, but demand the genuine, which is sold only in one-pound packages, sealed, to prevent your being deceived and given something inferior for your money and to preserve the coffee from the contamination and handling to which loose grocery store coffee is exposed.

We sell several hundred million pounds of coffee a year, and our business justifies the employment of the men most skilled in selecting, blending and roasting coffees. We can afford the best at the smallest minimum of expense, and the aroma and flavor of our skilled roast is preserved to you intact, no matter where you live, by the coating of eggs and sugar that we give the coffee after roasting. This is the original "mother's" process, patented by this firm. Were our business smaller than it is, we could not afford to give such coffee for the price.

You can buy direct from us if your grocer will not supply—that is, you can buy ARIOSA Coffee—but not furniture, nor dishes, nor other commodities. We give prices, this time, but for sentiment, not for money. We will send you ten pounds of ARIOSA in a wood box from our nearest depot, transportation paid to your freight station. Price will be $1.80; you can send express or postal money order. The price fluctuates and cannot be guaranteed for any period. The $1.80 pays for both transportation and coffee—there will be nothing more to pay. The coffee will be in the original wrappers, bearing signature of Arbuckle Bros.—ten packages, ten signatures—which entitle you to present a New Book of the ninety-seven presents in colors free, if you write. Write for the book anyway, and see what beautiful and useful presents we give.

Address our nearest office, Box Dept. ARBUCKLE BROTHERS, 71 Water Street, New York City, 100 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Liberty Avenue and Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., 421 South Seventh Street, St. Louis, Mo.

IF YOUR GROCER REFUSES TO SELL ARBUCKLES ARIOSA COFFEE WE WILL SEND YOU 10 LBS DIRECT

few friends very pleasantly at an evening dance on Monday evening. Those enjoying Miss Frayer's hospitality were Misses Alice Hobson, Mable Byerley, Misses Crute and Du Val, Carrie Kyle, Eva and Mollie Byerley. The gentlemen were Messrs. Mr. William Vaughan, of Richmond, spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marivether Vaughan, of this town.

Miss Mamie De Berry is in Farmville attending the Normal School.

A new depot—a much needed improvement—will soon be built here. The freight at this point is the heaviest on the Tidewater and Western road.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 28.—Mrs. Dwight Newell gave a reception Tuesday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Vincent Day and Mrs. Powhatan Conway, of Danville, Va., and Mrs. J. Thompson Brown, of Richmond, Va. The receiving party received their guests in the front drawing-room, which was very tastefully decorated in red and green, with profusion of ferns and sweet peas. Mrs. Newell wore a dainty gown of white mousseline, trimmed with baby Irish lace; Mrs. Smith was gowned in a handsome black crepe de chine, handsomely embroidered. Mrs. Conway's frock was of green tulle over blue tulle. Mrs. Brown was dressed in black net over white silk. Teas and other cool beverages were served in the dining-room, which was tastefully decorated in green and white, candles, with green and white shades, giving a soft and brilliant effect. A large lot of invited guests were present, among them Mrs. Samuel Forbes, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. George Jennings, of Atlanta.

Mrs. J. C. Pittard entertained her friends at one of the prettiest card parties of the season on Wednesday afternoon. The house was fragrant with sweet peas, which, together with ferns, palms and other plants, made a pretty setting for many lovely young women in their festive summer frocks. The card tables were placed in the drawing-rooms. After the games, refreshments were served. Mrs. Pittard was handsome in a lavender and white organdy gown. A large number of guests were present.

Mr. Sampson, of Richmond, is a visitor here.

H. S. Cunningham, of Richmond, Va., is in the city.

Mr. Wellhouse, T. B. Gibson, and W. T. Purvis, of Richmond, are in the city on a brief visit.

The Incomparable White
Noiseless, Powerful, Automatic.

It is built of few parts, which allow it to be built comparatively light in proportion to its capacity.

The WHITE stands pre-eminent in the history of automobile engineering.

There is absolutely no danger from explosion; it is easily operated, and running expenses are reduced to a minimum, permitted by automatic construction.

It is at all times a genuine pleasure to ride in a WHITE, since it continues to give constant satisfaction and service under all conditions. It is the criterion of mechanical ingenuity.
